TOUR PLAN

DAY TWO:

MACHU PICCHU - OLLANTAYTAMBO - CUSCO

Your day will be off to an early start so you can enjoy the beauty of Machu Picchu without the crowds. You will have breakfast and then take one of the first buses up to the ruins. Exploring the ruins with your knowledgeable guide you will learn more about its history - how for centuries it remained known only to a few locals, escaping the attention of the conquistadors and rediscovery by Hiram Bingham.

You will also discover more about the way the buildings were built to be both beautiful and functional and the harmonious construction of the buildings with the mountains.

Once your tour is over you can explore the site on your own, marveling at the ingenuity of the Incas as you revisit the buildings and take in the breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains.

You'll board a bus to Aguas Calientes in the afternoon and depart on the train back to Ollantaytambo. During your ride, you'll have time to reflect on your journey along the Inca Trail to the majestic ruins of Machu Picchu. In Ollantaytambo, your tourist transfer will return you to your Cusco hotel.
